

Please reverse current practices of discriminating against people with disabilities, specifically deaf people, by adopting VRS reimbursement rates that will encourage the recruitment and training of interpreters for the VRS environment. Rates should cover both direct service and ongoing research needs.